Wilson Captures Topps Player of the Month Award

Diamond Jaxx OF Mike Wilson has been named the Topps Player of the Month for June, as voted on by Southern League managers. The Topps Company of New York and in conjunction with Minor League Baseball, presents the award each month to the top performer in each of the 10 full season leagues.

Wilson appeared in 27 games for the Diamond Jaxx during the month of June. He hit .314 with 9 homers and 32 RBI. The 32 RBI is the highest total by a Southern League player in one calendar month since Jerry Gil drove in 33 runs for the Tennessee Smokies in August of 2006.

Wilson played a vital role in the Diamond Jaxx first half Northern Division championship. Wilson drove in 9 runs in the last 2 Diamond Jaxx first half wins and hit a 2-run double in the first inning of the title clinching game at Huntsville, a game the Diamond Jaxx won 5-1, putting the Jaxx in the playoffs for the first time since 2005.

Wilson is currently batting .278 with 20 homers and 60 RBI in 78 games this season. Wilson is currently tied for the Southern League in home runs. He is also T3rd in the league in RBI and is 4th in the league with a slugging percentage of .564.

With 7 more home runs, Wilson will tie the Diamond Jaxx all-time record for home runs in a season, set by Brandon Sing in the 2005 campaign. Wilson will be the DH in the upcoming Southern League All-Star game in Zebulon, NC. He will be hitting in the cleanup spot for the Northern Division.

AUMONT NAMED TO FUTURES ROSTER

Wisconsin's RHP Phillippe Aumont has been selected to the World Team for Major League Baseball's All-Star Futures Game. He is the only representative from the Mariners organization this year.

Aumont, a native of Canada, has recorded 43 strikeouts in 44.2 innings pitched with a 2.62 ERA for the Timber Rattlers this season. He was also named to the 2008 Midwest League All-Star Team, but did not participate due to injury.

The 10th annual All-Star Futures Game will feature some of the best Major League prospects from the United States and from various countries around the world. The event will be held on Sunday, July 13th, at New York 's Yankee Stadium as part of All-Star Week.

WELLS NAMED TO PCL ALL-STAR TEAM

Tacoma closer Jared Wells was the Rainiers' selection for this year's Triple-A All-Star Game between the Pacific Coast League and the International League on July 14 in Louisville, Ky. Wells leads the PCL with 15 saves and has not blown a save since Aug. 3, 2007, against Nashville while pitching for the Portland Beavers.

Kris Sanchez, Kalian Sams and Kenn Kasperek Named Appalachian Players of the Week

Choosing a single Appalachian League Player of the Week is impossible this week, as 2 players showed amazing consistency and impressive power. The former defines Kris Sanchez's week perfectly, as he was the most dangerous hitter in the Minor Leagues this week. After hitting a homer, drawing a walk and stealing a base on June 30, it was only uphill for Sanchez. The first baseman would collect 3 hits the next day, followed by 2, 4 and another 2-hit effort in the 1st game of a Sunday doubleheader. In the 2nd game, Sanchez collected 1 hit, but he drew 2 walks and scored every time he reached base. The monster week for Sanchez is largely responsible for some noteworthy numbers at home, where the Pulaski slugger is hitting .567.

Of course, if Sanchez was topped by anyone, it was Kalian Sams, who was the league's most dangerous power threat on the week. Sams entered last Sunday hitting .111 with 2 extra-base hits on the season. On Tuesday, the outfielder hit his 2nd homer of the season, and would start a streak of 4 consecutive games with a roundtripper. His performance reached a pinnacle on Friday, as Sams cranked 2 blasts in Pulaski's 14-3 win over Princeton. The Netherlands product now has all 8 of his extra-base hits this season against right-handed pitchers.

Kenn Kasperek seems like an adept sign by the Mariners now, but surely the decision to bring him into the organization wasn't so clear cut. While the 6-foot-8 right-hander was 8-0 with a 2.10 ERA in his freshman season at Texas, he never again returned to that form as a Longhorn. Kasperek had Tommy John surgery that sidelined him for the 2007 season, and this spring, his 3.76 ERA was indicative of an up-and-down season. Now pitching against wood bats, Kasperek looks as healthy as he's been since that freshman season, dominating last week with a pair of home victories. The Austin native allowed just 4 baserunners in 6.0 innings on Tuesday, and then just 3 on Sunday, as he struck out 16 batters and walked only 1 in the pair of outings.

Kris Sanchez, Pulaski

.684 (13-19), 7 R, 3 2B, 2 HR, 8 RBI, 4 BB, 4 SO, 1 SB, 1.158 SLG

Kalian Sams, Pulaski

.381 (8-21), 7 R, 5 HR, 12 RBI, 1 BB, 6 SO, 0 SB, 1.095 SLG

Kenn Kasperek, Pulaski

2-0, 0.75 ERA, 2 G, 2 GS, 12.0 IP, 6 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 1 BB, 16 SO
